

Teachers of RE in all phases of education are invited to attend the 2018 West of England LTLRE annual conference

Different voices: engaging with similarity and diversity in RE

Venue: Bailbrook House Hotel,
Eveleigh Ave, Bath BA1 7JD

Starts: 5.30pm Thurs 28th June
Ends: 3.30pm Fri 29th June

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

- Sushma Sahajpal
- Janet Orchard
- Katie Freeman

Workshops for primary and secondary include:

Adam Robertson: the embodied Jesus and refugees

Katy Staples: being a powerful RE leader

Sushma Sahajpal: understanding Hindu traditions

Alison Duffett: festivals, symbols and meanings

Niel Apps: Jesus with blue eyes

Chris Selway: 'nones' on the run!

Ed Pawson: teaching Islam at GCSE

Mike Keogh: McM mindfulness, a beginners' guide

Katie Freeman: excellent RE in Early Years

Mary-Anne Willmott: building bridges

Janet Orchard: shared space

Cost: £70 (residential), £50 (Friday delegate)

Deadline for bookings: 22nd June 2018

Access the booking form here (on the LTLRE website)

For more information, please contact efpawson@gmail.com

'We have far more in common with each other than the things that divide us' (Jo Cox)

* Due to generous support from the Jerusalem Trust and the St Matthias Trust we are able to offer places at this reduced rate for teachers coming from schools in the following authorities: Somerset, N Somerset, Bath and NE Somerset, Bristol, S Gloucestershire, Swindon, N Wiltshire. Teachers from schools outside this area will be required to pay the full fee of £250.