

Maria Gomez Mark Scheme Grid

	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5	Level 6
AT1	You have identified a link between the sources and what Maria did.	You have described and shown that you have understood the link between the sources and what Maria did	You have shown how the sources explain what Maria did.	You have interpreted the sources to give several reasons to explain what Maria did.
	You have identified the impact Maria's faith had upon what she did	You have described how Maria's life and faith have made an impact on other people	You have explained why Maria's life and faith have had an impact on other people	You have explained why Maria's life and faith will have inspired different Christians in different parts of the world in different ways.
	You have described the link between Maria's life and the cross named after her	You have suggested some of the ways the cross has a meaning for her friends	You have understood that Maria's cross will mean different thing in different parts of the Christian world and said why.
	You have used some Religious terms to describe Maria's cross.	You have used some Religious terms to describe and show that you understand Maria's cross	You have used several Religious terms to explain the impact of Maria's cross	You have used some philosophical as well as Religious terms to explain the impact of Maria's cross

Maria Gomez Mark Scheme Grid

	Level 3	Level 4	Level 5	Level 6
AT2	You have identified who or what influences you and said what you do as a result of this.	You have described who or what influences you and said what it is about this that inspires you.	You have explained why someone or something inspires and influences you.	You have expressed some of your own insights into why you believe what you do about a faith or a world issue.
	You have said what you think about why Maria did what she did (her values) and what you think of what she did (her commitments)	You have discussed, by seeing more than one point of view, if Maria was right to do what she did and You have applied your own ideas about faith to answer this question	You have questioned if Maria was right to do what she did and You have expressed a view on the challenges for Maria in following her faith.	You have expressed you own views on other peoples attitudes to what Maria did and considered the challenges for anyone following a faith in today's world.