

Which of these are Fair?

Women should stay at home and do the housework

Education should not be available for everyone

If you criticise the government you will be killed!

Poor people should not be allowed medical treatment.

There should be elections for new leaders

If you are rich you have more 'rights'

If you are poor then you have no 'rights'

Doctors should only see people who can afford to pay them.

Rich people should make all of the decisions

Poor people should not be taught how to get more money.