

The Role of Animals

Using animals for us to look at in a zoo.

Animals live their life freely without interference from humans.

Using animals as family pets.

Using animals for work, which might cause their death, e.g. bomb squad dogs.

Using animals for food.

Using animals for entertainment, which may hurt them, but does not result in their death.

Using animals for entertainment, which will result in their death.

Using animals for entertainment, which does not hurt them and will not result in their death.

Using animals for experimentation, which will save a human's life.

Using animals for experimentation, to ensure the make-up we use is safe.

Using animals for experimentation, to ensure all the cosmetics we use are safe.

Using animals to assist in work, which will not cause their death such as guide dogs.