

Jewish	They make promises.
Christian	They read from a holy book.
Both	A religious leader leads the ceremony.
It takes place in a special building.	They have a party afterwards.
They wear special clothes for it.	Family and friends are there.

They have special classes to prepare for the ceremony.	Water is a big part of the ceremony.
This has been a tradition for many years.	There are different ceremonies for boys and girls.
After the ceremony they become full members of their religious community.	They believe they are receiving the gift of the holy spirit.
This happened to Jesus.	Write your own idea here.
