

“Good people,
sharing good things,
to make us good”

Arun Bedi
Sikh member of Swindon
SACRE

SWINDON Standing Advisory Council on Religious Education

New Guidance for Collective Worship – Wisdom Gathering Competition

Swindon SACRE is revising its guidance on Collective Worship/Assemblies for schools in Swindon in the light of the importance placed on Spiritual Moral Social and Cultural (SMSC) aspects of learning in the new Ofsted framework 2012.

We would like to smatter this document with snippets of wise quotations and inspiring pictures from children and young people in Swindon Schools.

So we would like to offer you this competition – SACRE will reward any entrant with a special Certificate of Thanks.

Pictures and wise words or poems will be included in this new “Collective Worship Guidance for Swindon Schools.”

Deadline: Friday 11th May 2012

Please send entrants to katy.staples@bristoldiocese.org. Katy Staples, All Saints Centre, 1 All Saints Court, BS1 1JN

Here are some key categories you may like to choose from ...

Looking into a candle ...

I see beauty ...

I worry about ...

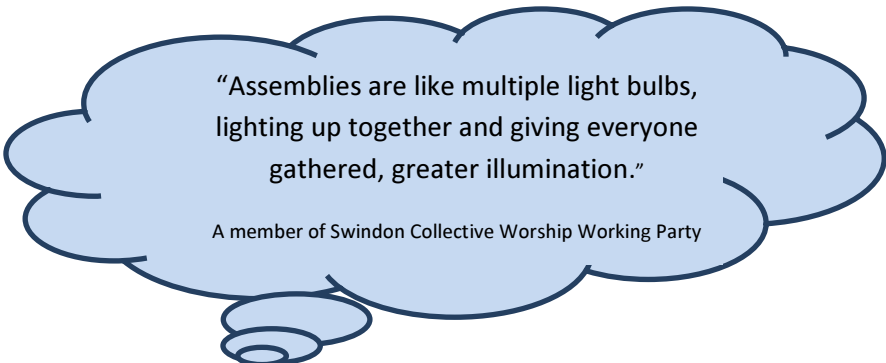

I wish ...

When we come together ...

During Collective worship/Assembly I feel ... I enjoy ...

It is an important time because ...

Entry can be as little as one sentence, a short poem or a picture.

“Assemblies are like multiple light bulbs,
lighting up together and giving everyone gathered, greater illumination.”

A member of Swindon Collective Worship Working Party